

MAKING THE FRENCH CONNECTION

The University of Melbourne

The International Relations Office in conjunction with the University's Department of French, Italian and Spanish Studies and the Embassy of France is delighted to invite you to participate in our upcoming French Connection Day. This event will explore ways of strengthening collaborative ties with French counterparts and institutions and outline research funding opportunities and programs.

The French Connection seminar is to be followed by a reception at the Baillieu Library to celebrate the acquisition of a collection of Armand-Gaston Camus manuscripts.
