

BULLETIN

May 2012

Volume 19, Number 2

A Presentation by the world renowned

Dr. Jean-Marie Fèvre

Wednesday 27th June 2012

We, the President and the Executive Committee of the Australian French Association for Science and Technology in Victoria (AFAS-Vic), have much pleasure to invite our members and friends to listen to the world renowned

Dr. Jean-Marie Fèvre

Who will present his special topic of

Logistical Performance and the triple bottom line: financial, human & environmental

Dr. Fèvre is on a trip with his wife across Australia and has kindly offered to talk to us on one of his fields of competence.

He has delivered similar presentations to the Wallonian-Brussels delegation in Paris, Virginia Community College in Arlington, Stanford in California, Teheran University and City University in New York.

Dr. Fèvre has a PhD in Economic & Social Sciences and is currently Senior Lecturer in Management at the University of Lorraine in Sarreguemines Campus, France.

He has been practicing for 36 years in academia, the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs and speaks 7 languages.

Married with 3 children, he is the recipient of many awards including the Chevalier de l'Ordre National du Mérite (2008) and the Cross of the German Federal Order (2000).

WHEN:	Wednesday 27 th June 2012	RSVP before Wednesday 20 th June 2012 to Philippe Lesage, Ph 03 8878 2000 (BH) Mobile 0408 330 878 plesage@versalux.com.au secretary.vic@afas.org.au
TIME:	Start 7:00 pm
WHERE:	Alliance Française Eildon Mansion 51 Grey Street, St Kilda 3182.	